Writing about Literary Weaving Project: Use separate pieces of paper. (I prefer word-processing)

A. Based on your completed paper strip for your self-selected book, explain your decisions for design, symbol, color, words/quotation) regarding both visual and written choices. What were you hoping to represent? Are you satisfied with the results? Explain. What new thinking about your book resulted from the creation of this project?

B. Do the same kind of response about the strip you made to represent yourself.
